DETENTION ORDER - 2 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) The drug offense with which defendant is charged in Count I carries a maximum penalty of life imprisonment, with a mandatory minimum sentence of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption that defendant will be detained.
- (2) Despite the presence in court of defendant's wife and family, in light of all the circumstances, he has not effectively rebutted that presumption.
- (3) Defendant is a citizen of Mexico, but has a "green card."
- (4) Law enforcement wiretaps revealed 21 pertinent calls where defendant was involved.
  Although the conversations were conducted in coded language, they order negotiations for ordering and delivering various controlled substances.
- (5) Pretrial Services reports that defendant is associated with the use of nine alias names and four dates of birth.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney

  General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
